Title	Poet	Rhyme Scheme	Figure of speech	Theme or central Idea
--------------	-------------	---------------------	-------------------------	------------------------------

Ans. The title of the poem is 'ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE' which is written by renowned poet William Shakespeare. There is no rhyme scheme used in this poem, as it is blank verse.

The central theme of the poem is that the cycle of life from birth to death is inescapable and we should play the roles assigned to us at various stages just like professional actors. Shakespeare compares the world to a stage on which the drama of life is carried out by men at various stages in life, who are actors in the drama. They enter and start acting at birth, the first stage, they finish acting at death, the seventh stage, and exit the stage. In between, they go through the five stages of childhood, youth, working age, maturity and retirement.

The figure of speech used in this poem are Metaphor, Simile, Alliteration, Inversion, Hyperbole, Repetition, etc. as there is indirect comparison between people and actors and the world is compared to a stage. The poet has used Simple language.

15

Ans. 1. (i) The organization called 'Greener Way' disposed off the paper waste.

(ii) Dechen Paydon had learned to make meditation mats out of plastic waste from her aunt.

(iii) Thanks to the efforts of the children, ELC became a zero waste school.

(iv) We could reuse the waste to make meditation mats.

2. (i) The school food waste regularly went into the compost pit.

(ii) Chhoeing Upel suggested the idea of spreading the message in school by giving performances in all the classrooms and putting up posters.

3. (i) (a) culture - cultural.

(b) convert - convertible.

(ii) (a) offender - culprit

(b) clear and definite - tangible

4. (i) What a wonderful idea this is!

(ii) Ms. Choden nodded and said that it was a wonderful idea.

5. The children had taken a firm determination to reduce the trash. The harm that has been done to the environment was also supposed to be mended. So they took up a number of activities to educate the children in this direction. The efforts taken by them began to fruit and in no time all the trash from ELC was reduced drastically. It was a zero waste school. In this way the results were so tangible because of the efforts taken by them.

(B) Best Out Of Waste

Dechen Paydon suggests making recycled mats. Chhoeing Upel suggests some ideas to market Dechen's new concept.

Ms Choden also thinks it is a wonderful idea as it will benefit their school, support their farmers, promote their culture, conserve the environment, and, most importantly, turn the students into more responsible citizens.

ELC's food waste started going to the compost pit and their paper waste was disposed off through Greener Way - a nationwide organization that collected and recycled waste.

Ans. This proverb has great significance in every day life. It means as the action is, so is the result. A good action has a good result, and an evil action has a bad result. A result is the natural fruit of man's action.

Happiness or misery in life depends upon the deeds of man and neither any accident, nor a mischance is responsible for our troubles. Grapes cannot be gathered from thorny bushes. If you sow wheat, what harvest you can expect. It is thus the man who is responsible for his failure.

In the golden period of youth, if you sow the seeds of idleness, bad habits, you will reap nothing, but misery, hardship and humiliation: but if you sow the seeds of industry, patience, strong will, life will be bright and fruitful.

The actions of man shape his life to come. So everybody must beware that he builds his future life in the right way. So let our field of life be strewn with the seeds of virtue and good deeds, so that we may reap a rich harvest of happiness here and here after.
