SECTION A : READING SKILLS (22 marks)

1	Read the text carefully and answer the questions:	[12]
	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Choice of profession and career is of great importance. Success depends on the right and timely choice of a career. There are a great variety of careers and professions. The lack of proper counselling worsens the situation. It also results in unemployment and frustration which means a lot of waste of money, time and energy. The students should take the help of elders, teachers and professionals in deciding their careers. They should choose their career according to their aptitude and resources.</li> <li>2. Young people are ambitious, impatient and eager to achieve good positions. They want to become high officials, executives and have top positions without considering their qualifications, skills, etc. This is a wrong attitude. One should be realistic. One may dream of becoming a super film star and end up as a mere casual artist. Such high ambitions lead to disillusionment and unhappiness.</li> <li>3. It is better to choose a career at the high school level than go for higher studies aimlessly. One should go for a vocational course at this stage. There are many careers, professions and vocations to</li> </ol> choose from. There are teaching, engineering, medicine, law, technology, business, trade, computer application career, government employment, positions in the police and army etc. But each of these requires special aptitude, training, and resources. One may have proper qualifications and aptitude for a career of a doctor or engineer. But if there are no financial resources to train for it, one cannot choose it as one's career.

4. Choice of a career is not simply a matter of likes and dislikes. Financial resources play a very important role in deciding to choose a profession. For lack of funds, one will have to choose a far humbler career. One can take to politics if one has an aptitude for public life. It is a profession of hard labour and perseverance. If you have strong optimism, ambition for fame and are prepared to face the worst, you are best suited for politics. If you have enough money and resources and want to grow very rich, you can choose business as your career. Therefore, be practical, logical and reasonable in choosing your profession. This is a crucial choice.
1. What leads to disillusionment and unhappiness among young people?
  - a) Monotonous lifestyle
  - b) Lack of success
  - c) Gap between qualifications and achievements
  - d) Unrealistic ambitions
2. State the factors that can help young people decide their career.
3. What are the qualities needed to become a politician?
  - a) Oratory skills
  - b) Funds
  - c) Aptitude for public life
  - d) Fame
4. What is the right time to make a career choice? Why?
5. Why are financial resources important while choosing a career?
6. Substitute the underlined word in the sentence with the word from the passage which means the same.
We need the help of the elders to solve this riddle.
7. What are the qualities associated with the young people?
  - a) Ambitious
  - b) Educated
  - c) All of these
  - d) Impatient
8. Complete the sentence appropriately.
One's success in life depends on _____.
9. Complete the sentence appropriately.
Lack of proper counselling leads to _____.

2 Read the text carefully and answer the questions: Read the following table displaying how Millets are processed and prepared for consumption.

[10]

Processing Common Steps	Activities Involved	Effects on the Millets and their nutrients
Removing the Husk	Removing the husk from the grains because it is composed of cellulosic matter that the human body cannot digest.	As per a study, when this is done to pearl millets, their phytic acid and polyphenol contents drop. As per a paper published in 2021, millet husk can be briquetted and used as household fuel, and potentially alleviate energy poverty in north Nigeria.
Decortivating the grain	Decortivating the grain, that is, to remove any other outer covering and expose the seed.	Mechanical and hand-worked decortication do not have significant effects on the grain. Both remove crude and dietary fibre. They make the grain more edible and visually attractive, which are favourable factors when marketing them to urban centres.
Milling and Grinding	Milling to grind the grains into flour. Sieving to remove large 'impurities' including bran.	Whole-flour has a high content of 'total polyphenols and flavonoids.' Sieving makes the flour more digestible and its nutrients more accessible to the body. But it also reduces the nutrient content due to the loss of bran.
Germination and Fermentation	Grains are soaked in water for an extended duration.	A positive improvement in the overall nutritional characteristics of millets.

Polishing	Polishing is the process whereby brown rice, for example, is changed to white rice by rubbing off the bran and the germ.	As per a 2012 study, barnyard millet can be polished with a rice polisher for up to three minutes without significant nutrient loss. Polished millets are preferred by- (i) customers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• for the resulting taste and texture</li> <li>• shorter cooking time</li> </ul> (ii) retailers <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• longer shelf life that is achieved by removing the bran</li> </ul>
